Resource Center Proposal

- The board talked about a proposal from the 9-1-1 Resource Center for assistance and service to the 9-1-1 Services Enterprise.
- Several members liked the idea and wanted to explore it more in depth.
 - The only concern would be that if they were to move forward, there would be accountability and direction in regard to funding.
- It will be added to the agenda for an upcoming meeting.
- There was a formal motion to proceed with discussion and negotiation around the potential use and partnership with the Colorado 9-1-1 Resource Center.
 - Matt Goetsch was the first on the motion.
 - The motion was seconded by Amy Buch.
- Michael Berry will reach out to the 9-1-1 Resource Center to conduct that.

Bylaws Review

- There was a quick update on the bylaws and a final version is expected soon.
- The 988 services group does offer travel reimbursement.

Legislative Updates

- No new laws were discussed since the state legislative session ended.
- Board members agreed that this topic should be removed from future meeting agendas.
 - If a special session happens or the state legislature meets again, it will be added back.
- The team also made a note to include a full review of submitted proposals on the next meeting's agenda.

Board Comments

- Some members asked if there is a deadline for finishing the bylaws.
 - There is no legal deadline, but the goal is to approve them soon.
- Members were reminded to read any proposals that come in before the June 16 deadline.
